Christian, know thy worth!

Attention parishioners & friends, come celebrate the closing of the Jubilee Year of Mercy in a profound way. Fr. Daniel will be presenting:

Living in the Shadow of the Cross: Embracing Your God-given Dignity

Our pastor will be giving a series of talks in the form of a mission. Join us November 7th-10th for Mass and preaching which will address a most important issue: our human dignity!

5:15 pm Confessions

6:00 pm Mission Mass

Dear family, When most of us were being raised, we were taught that generally we should be kind, gracious and cordial with people. It was and still is impressed upon many kids that civility in conversations, encounters, and relationships is a necessary quality for keeping peace and living in an ordered society. These are rules of thumb most of us agree to and practice. Unfortunately, our pride sometimes gets in the way. It's easy to move from witty commentary to personal or character attacks. It is commonplace now for media and political personalities to cut down those who they disagree with. What's scarier is that it seems the more aggressive the personality, the more popular the show, broadcast, or podcast. But what's the problem, after all we have freedom of speech, and aren't we just shooting the breeze anyway? The problem is that when we lose our civility and cease to argue respectfully and with charity, then we lose a piece of what it is to be human. Moreover, as Christians, we are called to see each other as dignified children of God, even when those siblings disagree with us. We also in many cases, by acting in an aggressive and disrespectful way, demean the depth of the subject we are addressing. Cutting people down is dangerous in many ways and on many levels, but consider when we start talking about sacred things. In today's Gospel, the Sadducees are asking ridiculous questions and making even more ridiculous examples. What's worse is that they are not searching for truth or walking some noble path toward intimacy with God, they just want to attack Jesus personally and play games. As people marked with Christ's love and truth, we should have no room for games. We shouldn't discuss anything without charity. We shouldn't chat about important issues unless we are ready to respectfully disagree. And we should never ever discuss our faith without reverence and love, which are the basics of discipleship. In His joy, Rev. Fr. Daniel Gutierrez
