On behalf of the clergy and staff of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish we wish you and your family a warm and joyous Thanksgiving celebration.
God bless you all!

"Gratitude can transform common days into thanksgivings, turn routine jobs into joy, and change ordinary opportunities into blessings." William Arthur Ward

Dear family,

In this last day of the Year of Mercy I find it appropriate we end the celebration on Christ the King, for many reasons! First, we just went through an election: a strange, intense, and unprecedented election. But even with emotions high, we all benefit from the mercy of God knowing He's ultimately in charge and the one guiding our lives. Secondly, we cannot claim Jesus as our king if our behavior is not formed by His heart. As a king and leader, Jesus never leads without His heart, so we should follow suit. Power was never meant for itself, but to be guided by love or so God shows us. As we conclude this year of mercy, remember that we were only highlighting God's mercy, it is by no means exhausted or dissolved. So go live it!

In His joy,

Rev. Fr. Daniel Gutierrez
