May is here!

To all of my parishioners, I want to thank you for the wonderful Lenten and Holy Week participation that went so beautifully. From your devotion to your presence at grace-filled liturgies and in your generosity shown me in prayers and gifts, I cannot help but thank God for all of you. I feel your support in leading you all closer to Christ, at least that is my aim and desire. You are a double blessing: you bless me from God and to Him you are blessing in your work in building His kingdom on earth. Let us continue our pilgrimage together in Paschal joy!

-Fr. Daniel

Along with this season comes beautiful weather, new life and a new opportunity to reclaim our identity as a Marian Parish. Come and join our Taos Guadalupanas who will be reciting the rosary every Monday through Friday during the month of May, the Month of Mary. They will be praying the rosary at 5:30pm on Mondays and Tuesdays in the Main Church. Wednesday through Thursday the rosary will be held at the same time in St. Philomena Adoration Chapel. Come and let us pray together for ourselves, our parish, our community and our families. Let us get to know our patroness, Mary, Mother of the Church and our parish.

Dearest family,

While we still live in Easter glory, we are reminded that Our Lord's glory is also the glory of His Saints. While He has been raised from the dead so He raises us up from our own tombs and limitations to be like Him in holiness and love. Among those honored is our patroness, Mary. As we enter the month of May we give Our Lady special honor and in a particular way, our parish renews our commitment to our beloved exemplar of discipleship. Mary teaches all of us how to follow after Jesus with courage and humility, let us follow her example and get to know her better this May. Our Guadalupanas will be reciting a rosary Monday thru Friday during this month in our adoration chapel for our parish's intentions, come and join them. We also take this month to ask Our Lady's intercession for those who are to share her Son's Easter glory in His sacraments of Communion and Confirmation. This Saturday we pray for our little ones who will receive the Blessed Sacrament for the first time, may they model Our Lady's reverence for her Son.

As these children of ours prepare for their special and sacred moment of encountering God in the Sacrament, let us remember that we also should be prepared and reverent for what we are blest to receive every time in Holy Communion. We want to avoid the harried and stubborn state of those disciples in the Gospel today who fail to see Jesus in their midst. They were assured of their own knowledge of Jesus that they failed to see Him working right in front of them. Let us be aware and appreciative of this great gift of His presence among us!

In His joy,

Reverend Father Daniel James Gutierrez
