Interested in Being an Altar Server?

Recently we have had several inquiries into what is required to become an altar server. If your child is interested in serving the parish and God in this way, please call the parish office to set up a personal training session, we are flexible with the availability of trainings and would love to include your child among our servers. Children interested must be receiving their First Holy Communion this coming year or already have received the Sacrament. Adults too are welcome to serve. Our parish deserves to experience God's liturgy done well and you or your child can help in that. Please call the office for information.

Dear family,

The peace of Christ be with you all. This week I and every other priest of our Archdiocese will be at the annual Convocation for the Clergy with Archbishop Wester in Santa Fe. A convocation is a calling together of the priests so that we can have time to discuss our ministry and overall well being and spend time with each other and with our bishop, who is not only a successor of the apostles, but also a spiritual father to the priests in a special way. This week is also a much needed week of rest for us priests who usually only have one day off a week. Please pray that it goes well and that with renewed purpose and energy, we are all able to come back to our parishes and serve you, the special and loved people of God.

In this weekend's Gospel, Our Lord teaches us two important lessons, that life can be heartbreaking and that we humans can do a lot of damage. The second: in the end hope wins, love wins, God always wins. "The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone." People's rejection and hurtful actions have no play on the worth of us who have recourse to God directly and His love eternally. Like a person singing off tune in a concert, it's easy to focus on the bad in this life and the darkness, but as a wise soul once said, "All the darkness in the world cannot extinguish the light of a single flame." Is it any wonder that St. Paul encourages us to think of all things "excellent?" Paul well knew the pain of this life and the persecution He suffered for His convictions, yet he proposes that we look to the goodness of God in the world, because then we will abide in Christ's peace, Who leaves those things as a reminder of His love for us. Dear family, be at peace, God wins in the end!

In his joy, Fr. Daniel
